"LOST IN THE THOUGHTS BURDENED BY WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN"

I distinctly remember an extraordinary encounter that unfolded with remarkable clarity, particularly for someone of my considerable years. A towering rabbit, standing at an impressive six feet, brazenly confronted me, demanding my pocket watch, while his companion, a robust walrus, seized my nearly new Nike shoes in the process.

This peculiar incident serves as an intriguing prologue to my narrative, a sentiment echoed by my academic advisor from the prestigious Columbia House School of Journalism, where I proudly completed their home study program.

In my capacity as a founding member of the Palmdale Chapter of the outlawed Jesuits of Truth, I am compelled to uphold the principle of honesty.

Thus, I must clarify my enrollment status, which concluded on a rather unfortunate note. This was marked by an incident involving a rogue Jedi Refugee, contracted after Ahriman and his legion of off-world mercenaries retreated from their last stand at the Space Port of Tulsa to their lunar supply base, Alpha One.

This situation left many Jedi Refugees stranded and without benefits, as Ahriman's WEF Goonies had categorized them as either "seasonal" or “temporary” employees. The rogue Jedi attempted to forcibly remove me from the school’s administrative offices, further complicating my academic journey.

In the interest of honesty, I may have overstepped my bounds by jesting about his supposed Jedi Mind Control abilities or suggesting that he perform a Vulcan Mind Meld on me as a way to ridicule him.

This mockery was intended to highlight the futility of such skills

when applied to genuine CIS Humans.

Furthermore, it is pertinent to mention the ongoing class action lawsuit currently before
the New Tulsa Government Superior Court.

This legal action involves attorneys representing a collective of Jedi Refugees who participated in the significant ANTIFA Militia Insurrection on behalf of Ahriman's Coalition of Willing Nations.

They are now seeking compensation for medical expenses incurred due to severe brain damage, which has arisen from the incompatibility between the mechanical wiring of CIS Human brains and the more advanced neurological structures of the Jedi Refugees. The situation evokes a sense of sympathy for those embroiled in the ongoing administrative and legal struggles, particularly given the unsettling reality that the influence of Ahriman and the anonymous bureaucrats associated with the WEF Goonies continues to permeate the corridors and decision-making arenas of the newly established Tulsa Government.

This persistent presence of shadowy figures raises concerns about the integrity and autonomy of local governance, as it suggests an underlying tension between grassroots initiatives and external pressures that may undermine the legitimacy of the administrative processes at play.

In discussions with the recently elected officials in my district, a recurring theme emerged concerning their ability to honor campaign commitments aimed at instigating significant change and serving as catalysts for the fundamental reorganization of the new government.

This challenge is exacerbated by the presence of a deeply entrenched group of former Ahriman Loyalists, whose untrustworthy influence permeates various levels of administration.

The officials expressed a palpable sense of frustration, articulating that their hands are tied due to an immediate shortage of experienced personnel, a sentiment that resonated throughout our conversations.

This refrain, echoing a collective sentiment of resignation, seemed to serve as an unofficial justification for the perceived ineffectiveness of the new government's Corporate Congress, highlighting the complexities and constraints faced by those in power as they navigate the intricacies of governance amidst a legacy of mistrust.

I must acknowledge that I allowed this self-appointed guardian to influence my better judgment, leading me to engage in behavior that could be characterized as bullying towards an individual who was already facing significant hardships—perhaps even more severe than my own. This realization prompts a moment of introspection regarding my conduct, and I have taken the time to analyze the various emotional and rational perspectives surrounding the incident. Ultimately, I have arrived at a conclusion that aligns with the principles upheld by the Jesuits of Truth: the initial provocation originated from him, and I felt compelled to assert my position and articulate the truth, even if it necessitated addressing the painful realities faced by the Jedi Refugee Community, including the mental health challenges they endure.

Furthermore, it is essential to acknowledge the catastrophic impact of a CIS Human virus that has inflicted a particularly aggressive form of brain cancer upon the Jedi, undermining their ability to wield their formidable powers over the Multiverse's Force.

The tension between us

escalated through a succession
of intense and hostile
expressions, reminiscent of the dramatic confrontations
depicted in 20th-century
Western films, particularly those featuring Mexican standoffs.

However, this standoff
ultimately dissipated as both parties succumbed to a sense of ennui.

To be candid, my growing impatience was compounded by the fact that I was running late
for a scheduled business lunch
at Taco Bell.

THE RED CURRY PANCAKE PASTE ADDICTION ART SHOW TOUR

October 19-25th 2024

While many critics of the Starving Artist formerly known as Emil will start and end their attacks by addressing Emil's well-known and long history of addiction without having taken the time to examine the actual art that his addiction fueled him to create.

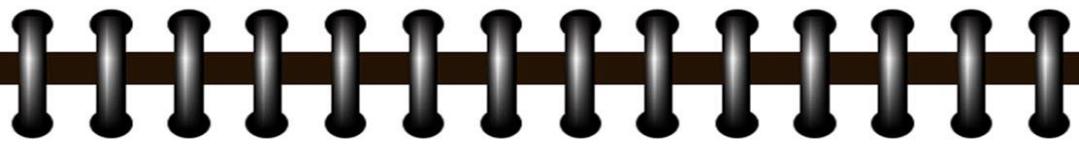

In cooperation with the Palmdale Chapter of the Jesuits of Truth, WWWG and the Giovanni Metro Stop Gallery, we have assembled a small representation of this traumatic period of his life to better understand the artist.
